About Gulf Air:

Gulf Air, Bahrain's national carrier, began operations in 1950, making it one of the Middle East's earliest commercial airlines. The airline flies to places in Europe, the Middle East, Africa, the Indian subcontinent, and the Far East from its hub at Bahrain International Airport.

Gulf Air now operates a wide and narrow-body Boeing and Airbus fleet to serve all of its destinations. Gulf Air is devoted to becoming an industry pioneer and providing goods and services that reflect the increasing requirements and ambitions of its customers. The airline is known for its traditional Arabian hospitality, as proven by its hallmark family and business-friendly products.
