Taaleem Careers In Dubai

About Taaleem Group Of School:

Taaleem, which means education in Arabic, has been establishing, operating, and managing early childhood, primary and secondary schools in Dubai since its inception in 2004. Taaleem seeks to raise the regional educational standards through the committed development of individual student's talents and passions, which is, in turn, facilitated and supported by the recruitment of top international educators and the implementation of international education policies, operations, and global best practices.

Each project is tailored to answer the specific educational requirements of a wide range of families by offering top international curricula including British, American, and the International Baccalaureate.
